Real Weddings

What inspires you?

One thing we've learned is that couples are most inspired by other couples. That's why, every year, we gather dozens of real weddings, put on by couples with local ties, that have taken place in and around Nashville. Our hope is that they plant a few new ideas in your head—and help as you plan out your own perfect day.

“Cherish the day. The details and decisions can be overwhelming, but what’s most important is that you get to marry your best friend. Don’t lose sight of the marriage while planning for the wedding.”
